

NEWS RELEASE
 FEBRUARY 06, 2009

WINDOW CLEANER CLEANS UP FOR CHILDREN'S CHARITY

A WINDOW cleaner has cleaned up for a children's charity collecting a £700 donation from the Federation of Window Cleaners.

Jim Savage, from Bredbury, won a competition for having the most published newsletter articles in two years and decided to donate his winnings to children's charity, MedEquip4Kids.

MedEquip4Kids provide medical children's wards units at hospitals West and recently Stepping Hill fetal monitor used a unborn baby's high-risk

Jim has been a MedEquip4Kids and has already of pounds by raffling fretwork clocks he makes himself.

raises money to equipment for and neo-natal across the North presented Hospital with a to keep check on heartbeat during pregnancies.

supporter of for several years raised hundreds

Jim – who keeps the windows of Poynton sparkling – developed a love for clock-making four years ago and now spends around 30 hours a week creating the intricate pieces.

MedEquip4Kids' community fundraiser, Sarah Bennett, said: "The attention to detail Jim gives to his clocks is incredible and the income he makes from raffling them is much appreciated by us so, to have the £700 donation from the Federation of Window Cleaners, is an added bonus and we are very grateful to Jim and the federation for their generosity."